Fiscal Analysis

ASSUMPTIONS:

1. The Legislative Council and Legislative Finance Committee will adopt policies requiring bill summaries be prepared as outlined in the legislation.
2. The workload related to preparation and production of the bill summaries for bills introduced prior to the 45th legislative day transmittal deadline cannot be absorbed within current staff resources.

3. Workload related to the preparation and production of the bill summaries for bills introduced after the 45th legislative day transmittal deadline would be absorbed within current staff resources.
4. The Legislative Services Division will contract for services related to the preparation and production of the bill summaries for those bills introduced prior to the transmittal deadline.
5. There would be 1200 bills introduced prior to the 45th legislative day. Contract services would be required for approximately three months, and contract provisions would require a 24-hour turnaround period.
6. Each bill summary would require one hour of contracted service time to complete.
7. Contracted services, including all operational costs incurred producing the bill summaries, could be obtained at a cost of $60 per hour.
8. The Legislative Branch's bill printing and distribution center would print the bill summaries for distribution during the legislative process at a cost of $19,272.
9. Programming and operational costs related to placing the bill summaries on LAWS, the Legislative Automated Workflow System, would be absorbed within current budget.
10. An appropriation of $72,000 would be needed in the Legislative Services Division HB 2 budget for FY2003, and an appropriation of $19,272 would be needed in the Legislative Services Division Program 22 Feed Bill Program in the 2003 session feed bill (HB1).
